

Unique among all books ever written, the Bible was authored by 40 different individuals over a 1,500-year period. Despite the timespan and various authors, there is a unity a cohesiveness that reveals these authors were inspired by the Holy Spirit. The Bible accurately foretells specific events in detail many years, sometimes centuries, before they occur.

Approximately 27% of the Bible contains prophetic writing. All of the verses in the Bible 8,352 are prophetic or speak of future events. All Biblical predictions about the future in these thousands of verses can be grouped into 737 different predictions, 522 predictions have already happened to the letter, 100% just like God's Word said they would.

That leaves about 2,040 verses with 215 specific predictions from God about the end of the world that are in the process of being fulfilled even today and in future. The Bible contains many specific events that would signal the end of days for life on planet earth as it has been for the past several thousand years. There is incredible specificity in these prophecies, so much so that it becomes a mathematical impossibility to grasp the probability.

No other religion or religious book outside of the Judeo/Christian faith has the proven track record that the Bible does. They ALL fail to hold the same perfect standard as the Bible. The Bible has been scrutinized by more skeptics and unbelievers than any other religious writing—and has withstood these attacks—every time! In fact, many atheists have come to faith in Jesus Christ after trying to disprove the Bible! The historical evidence and truth in the Bible are overwhelming. Common sense would say with a record 100% prophetic events to date why not believe in future prophecy that the bible speaks of that has not happened yet.

Why does the LORD tell us what will happen in the future? To answer that question, let's look at 2nd Peter 3:1-9: This is now, beloved, the second letter I am writing to you in which I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, that you should remember the words spoken beforehand by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles. Know this first of all, that in the last days mockers will come with their mocking, following after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of His coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all continues just as it was from the beginning of creation." For when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that by the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was formed out of water and by water, through which the world at that time was destroyed, being flooded with water. But by His word the present heavens and earth are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment. But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance. Do you believe that isn't a requirement of faith to repent? Jesus Himself says it is. We read in Matthew 4:17b Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

The Lord is patient, not wishing for YOU to perish but to come to repentance and true faith in Jesus Christ. So, the point of Bible Prophecy is to establish WHO is the TRUE GOD of this world. The enemy hates God, so he has set forth many false religions that distract, misdirect, and mis-characterizes the truth of the Bible. These include Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Atheism, Humanism, New Age, and more but especially the one-world religion loosely based on universal salvation for anyone that is good or does good works. Some believe that Biblical truth is just one version of truth, and there are many truths found in other religious thinking that are just as valid just as true. These views are categorically opposed to the Biblical Worldview.

Many false apostles, false Churches, and false religious systems are already here and although they all appear to be different, one shocking truth unites them all: they try to usurp, impersonate, and deflect the TRUTH of God's Word. The test for identifying a prophet of God is recorded by Moses in Deuteronomy 18:21-22. According to this Bible passage (and others), God's prophets are to be 100 percent accurate in their predictions. Even one error means that they are not a prophet of God. It disqualifies them immediately.

Here are some examples that demonstrate Bible prophecies that were predicted and then came TRUE:

(1) Some time before 500 BC, the prophet Daniel proclaimed that Israel's long-awaited Messiah would begin his public ministry 483 years after the issuing of a decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem (Daniel 9:25-26). He further predicted that the Messiah would be "cut off," killed, and that this event would take place prior to a second destruction of Jerusalem. Abundant documentation shows that these prophecies were perfectly fulfilled in the life (and crucifixion) of Jesus Christ. The decree regarding the restoration of Jerusalem was issued by Persia's King Artaxerxes to the Hebrew priest Ezra in 458 BC, 483 years after the ministry of Jesus Christ began in Galilee.

(2) In approximately 700 BC, the prophet Micah named the tiny village of Bethlehem as the birthplace of Israel's Messiah (Micah 5:2). The fulfillment of this prophecy in the birth of Christ is one of the most widely known and widely celebrated facts in history.

(3) In the fifth century BC, a prophet named Zechariah declared that the Messiah would be betrayed for the price of a slave—thirty pieces of silver, according to Jewish law—and also that this money would be used to buy a burial ground for Jerusalem's poor foreigners (Zechariah 11:12-13). Bible writers record thirty pieces of silver as the sum paid to Judas Iscariot for betraying Jesus, and they indicate that the money went to purchase a "potter's field," used—just as predicted—for the burial of the poor (Matthew 27:3-10).

(4) Some 400 years before crucifixion was even invented, both Israel's King David and the prophet Zechariah described the Messiah's death in words that perfectly depict that mode of execution. Do you understand what that means? They could not have known such details about the Roman method of execution Jesus would endure for us. Further, they said that the body would be pierced and that none of the bones would be broken, contrary to customary procedure in cases of crucifixion (Psalm 22 and 34:20; Zechariah 12:10). Again, historians and New Testament writers confirm the fulfillment: Jesus of Nazareth died on a Roman cross, and his extraordinarily quick death eliminated the need for the usual breaking of bones. A spear was thrust into his side to verify that he was, indeed, dead.

(5) The very rapture event is a future event that may have been fulfilled as you read this. In 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18 we read: "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of [the] archangel and with the trumpet of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words." Speaking about our transformation, it says in 1 Corinthians 15:50-52 "Now I say this, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. Behold, I tell you a mystery; we will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed.

Who can afford to ignore what the Bible says will happen? It's perfect track record stands for all time as a witness to YOU! Listen, friend, you cannot get distracted by the world system and its ways. You will see that all the prophesied events unfolding in the books of Daniel, Ezekiel, and especially Revelation are true. Our hope is that you don't miss out on the immeasurable blessings offered to anyone and everyone who submits to the Lordship Jesus Christ.
